Has the California drought impacted you with a reduction in hours or loss of your job? Are you finding it difficult to pay rent and/or utility bills? Yolo County Housing may be able to help you, if your income has been affected by the drought.

The County of Yolo has received Drought Relief funds from the State, to assist impacted families by providing up to six months of temporary rental assistance and utility payments to families who qualify. Eligible families will receive a drought assistance packet, detailing all requirements. Applicants will be interviewed and screened for income qualification by using HOME/CDBG income limits and program guidelines. Payments will be paid directly to landlords and utility companies.

Visit us at the following locations to meet with a representative to ask questions, obtain a packet, and sign up.:

- Winters - Monday, June 15th from 10-11 am at RISE, 201 1st St.
