Applicants need to have the name, date of birth, social security number, income and assets information of all household members. When the application is complete, applicants should print or save the confirmation page as a receipt for their records.

Applicants should apply only once for each program for which they are eligible, and for rental units only in areas where they wish to live. Some programs have special requirements, such as being engaged in farm labor, being over the age of 62, or having special needs and requiring support services.

Yolo County Housing provides over 2,760 units of affordable housing through private market subsidies, rental units for families, seniors and disabled, as well as seasonal and permanent rental housing for farm workers. For more information about Yolo County Housing, visit their website at www.ych.ca.gov or call (530) 662-5428.
